MEASLES BREAK OUT IN KEALIA

Measles are playing havoc in Kealia's school attendance, no less than seventy-nine cases of quarantine having been established. The wholesale quarantine establishment is due to Dr. Hoffman's desire to prevent the disease from spreading to Kapaa. Once a case is discovered in the latter place, there will be no further need of such stringent precautions, and the hardship resulting from such will be eliminated.

A Correction

Hilo, Hawaii, September 26, 1912
EDITOR GARDEN ISLAND:

In the issue of THE GARDEN ISLAND bearing date September 17, 1912, appears a statement to the effect that one, "Manuel E. Silva, of Honolulu, a leader in the Christian Science Church, is on Kauai with a view to establishing branch organizations of the church."

With reference to the foregoing publication I wish to state officially through your columns that there is in the Territory of Hawaii but one Christian Science church, namely, First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Honolulu, which is incorporated under the laws of the Territory of Hawaii, and like every other authorized Christian Science church is a branch of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston Mass. With this church the person mentioned in the news item above referred to, has not, and never has had, any connection, whatever, nor has any organization which he purports to represent any relation or resemblance, religious or therapeutic, to First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Honolulu, a boy specified as being the only Christian Science church in this Territory; nor has it the right to use the term Christian Science in referring to itself or its activities.

W. H. SMITH,
Christian Science Committee on Publication for the Territory of Hawaii.

JACK MEYERS HOST TO WINNERS

The Kilauea baseball players, the pennant winners for the season, were given a good old fashioned luau on Saturday afternoon September 28th., by Manager J. R. Myers at his pleasant home on the banks of the Kilauea river. About a hundred people enjoyed the repast, and after the luau the athletes and their friends enjoyed themselves with lawn tennis, rowing in the river and other diversions which helped to pass a very delightful afternoon. At the luau Rev. J. M. Lydgate officiated as toastmaster and his congratulatory remarks in praise of the successful work of the team in the hard fought baseball series, were much applauded.

Famous Artists Busy

That Hanalei is still attractive to wielders of the pot and brush, is further indicated in the fact that for sometime past, two well known artists have been spending weeks in that vicinity gathering bits of scenery which surpass anything yet culled from the natural beauty spots of this famous valley. Messrs. Wix and Hitchcock are artists of rare skill.

Check the subjects that you are interested in. Do not check more than three.

Thruout the rural portions of Hawaii there is a real and large need for library facilities more general than those existing at the present time. As in rural regions the world over, books are scarce. The people in the country should have accessible and reliable information concerning the things of their daily environment.

The Traveling Libraries have been established to partially meet this need of the rural communities of Hawaii. The college of Hawaii, in cooperation with the Department of Public Instruction, conducts these libraries on the four islands—Oahu, Hawaii, Maui, and Kauai. A circuit may later be established on Molokai.

Each library consists of about twenty-five books, dealing mainly with agricultural and related subjects. The books are modern, simple, non technical, and authoritative. The College provides the books and the boxes for their transportation, and oversees the forwarding of the libraries from school to school. The Department of Public Instruction pays transportation charges, and is responsible, thru its principals, for the books while they are in the schools.

There is no expense of any kind, so far as the school or principal is concerned, connected with the use of these libraries. They are sent in good faith to the schools on the circuits, on the principal's guarantee that the library will be properly cared for and promptly forwarded.

The library will remain at each school on a circuit for a period of one calendar month, at the expiration of which time the principal will pack and forward the library to the school next on the circuit. There are but few duplicates in the libraries, so that each library may make a circuit of all the islands. Additional libraries will be interpolated as the demand justifies.

The libraries will be sent only to those schools whose principals signify a desire to receive them, and agree to their safe-keeping. Any school principal desiring a library should write to the College of Hawaii upon the accompanying form.

The libraries are for the use of the teachers, the older pupils, and the people of the community. The principal may make any reasonable arrangements regarding the loaning of the books in his care, making sure, of course, that the books are duly returned. The books are best circulated among the persons interested by loaning them for definite, short, periods only.

The College of Hawaii is desirous that these Traveling Libraries

MAIL BAGS ARE DELAYED

When the Hall arrived last Friday, instead of following the usual course which is, that the mail comes off ahead of any freight, the reverse was the case, which resulted in an inconvenience to our local post-office officials in so much as the mail had to be sorted from the island mail which leaves at 6 a. m. and the force was compelled to work like thirty cents to get the mail distributed and sorted within the time limit. The patrons of the local office were also disappointed in the delay of their mail, having heretofore been accustomed to just a bit more promptness upon the part of the steamship officials. There might have been some very good reason for the delay, but until one is given, the question (Why?) is in order.

Sunday Service, Waimea

Sunday Services will be resumed at Waimea Foreign Church October 13th. The church building has been renovated without and within during the summer months. It has been made attractive and comfortable by the generosity and good will of all who have been want to worship in it. Every one is welcome to all the Services, and the Minister is always glad to call upon and serve all who at any time may desire his services.

Independent Candidate

Caesar Jardin a resident of Koloa, and a man who is said to be exceedingly strong among the Portuguese voters, will shortly announce his candidacy for representative from the Koloa district on the independent ticket. Other independent candidates will probably appear soon, one more being slated from also.

PASSENGERS ARRIVED

The following passengers arrived on Hall Friday morning: Hon. A. S. Wilcox, Rev. and Mrs. Isenberg, A. R. Traphagen, Mrs. W. A. K. C. W. Spitz, R. L. Hughes, Miss Waggoner, J. A. Morse, F. A. Keystone, Frank Enos, A. T. McDonald, H. Dyson, J. Kilmar, Dr. Wolters, F. F. Lacks, J. Mitsui, Mrs. Geo. Kalima, Hee Fat and 42 deck.

Lihue Bank Building

A. T. McDonald, the contractor under whose supervision the new bank building is to materialize, came up on the Hall Friday and is getting things in readiness for a start. The building will be of concrete and equipped with every modern appliance known to the up-to-the-minute banking houses.

Gone To Honolulu

Mrs. E. B. Bridgewater whose return from the coast was noted recently, has suffered a relapse and will be taken to Honolulu on the Hall this afternoon. She is suffering from a paralytic condition of the nerves of the spinal column which renders her helpless. Dr. Meyers accompanies Mrs. Bridgewater to Honolulu, where she will be placed under the care of Drs. Wolters and Herbert, wireless arrangements having been made to this effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bertram of Waimea were in Lihue yesterday. Dr. and Mrs. West of Makaweli were in Lihue Sunday.

A number of Makaweli people passed through here Sunday en route to Hanalei.

be of maximum service to the people. Any suggestions will be welcomed.
